ABSTRACT

The title of my paper is The Uses of So and Too Found in Set in Stone Novel. There are two problems analyzed in this paper, they are functions and meaning of the word so and too in novel. The data of this research are taken from the novel entitled Set in Stone by Robert Goddard (1999). In analyzing the functions and the meanings of the word so and too, it is applied the theory of Quirk et.al. in their book entitled A University Grammar of English. Some books are also used for other book reference to support the analysis. The data were collected by applying observation method. All the data were analyzed by applying descriptive methods based on the theory applied.

The result of the research shows that the word so and too can be used to modify part of speech, especially adverb and adjective. The word so can also be used as conjunctions, as intensifier, as emphazier, so as pro-form. The word too can be used as modifier of parts of speech especially verb, adverb, and adjective, as position of focusing adjunct, as addition, as intensifier especially amplifiers.

The word so as adverb in sentences has several meanings, such as to show a great degree, very or extremely, and also. The word too also has several meanings in the sentences, such as to say that something is better than others, necessary, the word too also means also or as well and very.

ABSTRAK

Judul dari skripsi ini adalah The Uses of So and Too Found in Set in Stone novel. Terdapat dua masalah yang dianalisa dalam skripsi ini, yaitu fungsi dan makna dari kata so dan too dalam novel. Data penelitian ini diambil dari novel yang berjudul Set in Stone karya Robert Goddard (1999). Dalam menganalisa fungsi dan makna dari kata so dan too, saya menggunakan teori dari Quirk dan kawan – kawan dalam bukunya yang berjudul A University of English Grammar. Data dikumpulkan dengan menggunakan metode observasi. Semua data di analisa menggunakan analisis deskriptif berdasarkan teori yang diterapkan.

Kata too juga dapat digunakan sebagai modifier parts of speech, khususnya kata kerja, kata keterangan dan kata sifat, sebagai focusing adjunct, additions, intensifier, khususnya sebagai amplifiers.
