Dear Editor,

We wish to submit an original research article entitled “Morpho-Semantic of Predicate in Indonesian” for consideration by the Journal of Language Teaching and Research.

We confirm that this work is original and has not been published elsewhere, nor is it currently under consideration for publication elsewhere.

The paper shows that Indonesian's predicate can be filled in by verb and non-verb categories, namely noun, adjective, preposition, and numeral. Theoretically, it is significant because it shows the Indonesian language characteristics that are different from other languages, especially English. Practically, this information will be useful for Indonesian language teachers, English teachers in Indonesia, and Indonesian language teachers for foreign learners to understand more about the Indonesian language and use it to anticipate students' problems in studying Indonesian or English.

Names of the author and co-authors (as per the intended order in publication)

1. Made Sri Satyawati, Udayana University, Jl. Pulau Nias No.13, Dauh Puri Klod, Denpasar, Bali, Indonesia 80113, srisatyawati@gmail.com, <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-4136-0515>
2. I Nyoman Kardana, Warmadewa University, Jl. Terompong No.24, Sumerta Kelod, Denpasar, Bali, Indonesia 80239, ikardana@yahoo.com, <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-6855-0576>
3. Dewa Ayu Kadek Claria, Warmadewa University, Jl. Terompong No.24, Sumerta Kelod, Denpasar, Bali, Indonesia 80239, clariadewaayu@gmail.com, <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-9538-7241>

We hope that the enclosed manuscript and reviewer suggestions fulfill the requirements for publication in Journal of Language Teaching and Research. Thank you for receiving our manuscript and considering it for review. We appreciate your time and look forward to your response.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Made Sri Satyawati,

Thanks for your submission.

On March 7, 2021, we received an email from Scopus, which says:

“The review of this title is now complete and the CSAB has advised that the title will be accepted for inclusion in Scopus.”

By submitting your paper, it implies that you are fully aware of the author guide at:

<http://www.academypublication.com/jltr/authorguide.htm>

Please note, the author needs to pay a paper charge after the paper is accepted:

300 USD for high income countries;

250 USD for middle income countries;

200 USD for low income countries

(no hard copy included)

This is to acknowledge receipt of your submission to Journal of Language Teaching and Research (JLTR).

This paper, assigned a code (Paper ID: JLTR21080101), is being put in the reviewing process. We thank you for submitting to our journal and will be back to you as soon as we have any news.

Your submission implies that the manuscript has not been published previously, and is not currently submitted for publication elsewhere. If any case of concurrent submission is found, the submission will be immediately rejected and the author's names will be put into our blacklist.

*** Please always quote your Paper ID in all the future inquiries or communications.

Dear Made Sri Satyawati,

This is to acknowledge receipt of the payment. Thank you.

1. Your paper now has been formally scheduled to Issue 6 of 2021 (to be published in November).

2. For the other two publication procedures (paper revision, and copyright transfer), please see attached.

Please send the revised paper and the signed copyright form to us within 10 days.

Failure to send the required documents in time might lead to the postponement of the publication!

* The paper will NOT be sent to the author for proofreading before publication. Therefore, please check the whole paper carefully again before sending the final version to us.

The journal will be sent for printing when it is published online. Revisions after publication should be avoided.

Sincerely,

Ms Linda Zhao,
